Importance & Significance of Kumbh

Allahabad, one of the primate and historical cities of India, is replete with great significance in ancient scriptures as Prayag or Teerathraj, i.e., the holy confluence of three rivers - the Ganges, the Yamuna and the mythical Saraswati. The Sangam, as the confluence of these three rivers is called, is revered as the birthplace of Lord Shri Ram. This holy city is also revered as the birthplace of Lord Vishnu. The Kumbh Mela is the world's largest religious festivity held every 12 years. Allahabad is unique in the sense that all pilgrimage routes eventually lead to the Sangam and the main confluence of the three rivers. The history of Allahabad dates back to ancient times. The Daujiya is another festival which is organise in the city in an unique style.

Kumbh Mela is a unique event in the history of Indian culture and religion. It is a multi-religious event where people from all over the world come together for a holy bath in the sacred water of the three rivers. The river Ganges is an important ritual. It is believed that bathing on this auspicious day cleanses one of sins and evil and liberates one from all sufferings and miseries of life. The Kumbh Mela considered the most sacred and powerful of all Hindu festivals where the glorious holy river Ganges is worshipped in its three avatars.

Kumbh Mela has a remarkable influence over the minds of Indians as it is a source of the highest religious gathering. It is held for one month every 12 years, attracting millions of pilgrims and tourists from all over the world. Allahabad is once in a lifetime experience. The festival is held in high regard as the ritual bath in the sacred water on this day is believed to wash away one's sins and grant salvation. The Ganga is revered as the 'Mother Ganga' and its water is believed to have the power to cleanse one's sins.

Kumbh Mela is considered the largest spiritual gathering in the world, attracting millions of devotees from diverse backgrounds and religious beliefs. The festival is held in Allahabad, Haridwar, Nasik, and Ujjain on a rotational basis every 12 years. The festival is dedicated to Lord Shree Ram and Lord Shri Krishna and is celebrated with great devotion and enthusiasm.
